

Ms. Ulrike Straka (53) is currently Consul Commercial Affairs and Trade Commissioner in Sydney, responsible for Australia, New Zealand, Papua New Guinea and Oceania.

Prior to that she was key account manager of Advantage Austria (the Austrian trade promotion agency) for the Austrian province of Styria, with the aim of increasing support services to Styrian exporters.

Between 1999 and 2021 she served in Austrian Trade Commissions in India, Ukraine, Bosnia and Hercegovina, as Trade Commissioner in Algeria and Bulgaria, and as Regional Manager for Northern Africa and Middle East at the Austrian Federal Economic Chamber in Vienna.

Ulrike Straka has studied in Austria, Italy and the Czech Republic and holds a law degree from Graz University.