Carmen Trochsler is a Swiss Lawyer, Management Consultant, and Leadership Coach. Born and educated in Switzerland, she spent a decade working in the Swiss Legal System before relocating to Australia. She is the owner and founder of iuvio consulting, a provider supporting small businesses and sole traders in startup, strategy, and systems, as well as governance and risk management. Additionally, she facilitates personal and professional growth for leaders as an accredited organizational coach.

Passionate about fostering connections and facilitating cross-border opportunities, Carmen serves as a Director of the Swiss Chamber of Commerce in Australia (SwissCham), representing SwissCham in South Australia. She is also one of the four elected Australian Members in the Council of the Swiss Abroad, a representative body for Swiss citizens living abroad, working closely with the Swiss government and various institutions.
