

Rebecca Zatti

After her bachelor degree in language sciences, Rebecca started working in the field of trade shows operations. She decided to further her experience in Events Management at the Italian Chamber, which allowed her to be connected to her home country while experiencing life in a new, exciting environment.

Rebecca loves to dive in different activities and to learn about diverse topics, and that is why she thrives in her role in events.